“ Our Millie was so much fun. You never had to guess what she was thinking because she would let you know. She was a proud New Yorker and loved her family. Millie was so kind to my Mother who was death, and a good buddy to my Dad, they would play poker with Maria once a week. I'm going to miss my New Yorker! May God bless this family, you had a wonderful Mom, Grandmother. Renee Carter Past Terrapin Grove Manager, present MAP Coordinator of QAC Aging

“ When I moved to Terrapin Miss Millie was the first friend I made. We loved to sit outside and chat. To her family may you be comforted knowing she is at peace. She was a wonderful person and I will miss her dearly.
