

Carol Ann Florkewicz

October 19, 1936 - December 10, 2018

Carol Ann Florkewicz, 82, formerly of St. Michaels, died on Monday, December 10, 2018, at Ocean Medical Center, Ocean City, NJ.

She was born on October 19, 1936, in Montclair, NJ, to the late Harry and Valerie Dolan. She attended school in Lyndhurst, NJ and Wilfred Beauty Academy in Newark, NJ.

In 1954, she trained as a switchboard operator for Bell Telephone. She worked until marrying Stephen V. Florkewicz on October 20, 1956. They raised their family in West Caldwell, NJ, where they lived for 32 years. They then moved to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, residing in St. Michaels, where they lived until moving to Heartfields in Easton, then later to Leisure Park in Lakewood, NJ., where they lived until their passing. Stephen Florkewicz, loving and devoted husband of 62 years, passed in June 2018.

Carol was a member of the Episcopal Church Women at the Christ Church in St. Michaels and enjoyed helping at various church functions until declining health interfered. When younger, she enjoyed showing dogs in obedience and breeding shows with her daughter. She also enjoyed fabric painting and traveling with her husband around the Eastern Seaboard in their RV, as well as boating with her son and his family.

Carol is survived by one son, Paul Florkewicz, his wife Jody, and their daughter Colby Hannah of St. Michaels, Maryland; daughter, Lynette Wink and her husband, David, of Stanhope, NJ; two daughters, Christine and Marie, who predeceased her; as well as a sister, Alice Slimm, of Little Falls, NJ.

Services will be private.
