May 23, 1953 - September 21, 2016

Carol Ann Cording Kiel, 63, of Millington, passed away on September 21, 2016. Carol was born on May 23, 1953, in Chestertown, MD, to Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson Cording Sr. She grew up on the family farm in Still Pond Neck with her three younger siblings.

Carol enjoyed many wonderful years in Millington with her late husband, Robert Kiel. She took great pride in raising her two sons, who were the light of her life. She was so very proud of them. Carol loved animals and cared for many pets over the years. She loved spending time on the beach where she reflected spiritually. Carol thoroughly enjoyed being a grandmother and was fondly referred to as "Cece."

Carol was preceded in death by her mother, Jean Cording. She is survived by her two sons, Wroth Newcomb, Lawson Newcomb (and Lindsay); father, W. Lawson Cording Sr.; brother William L. Cording Jr. (and Angela); brother Mark Cording (and Jennifer); sister, Kimerly Balderson (and Capt. Joe); and grandchildren, Ronan Newcomb and Hadley Newcomb.

A memorial service for friends and family is scheduled for noon on October 1, 2016, at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Rd, Chestertown, MD. Friends and family are welcome to call between 11:00 am and 12:00 pm.

“ I was the third person on the scene that day, called 911. As I was standing there, I said to myself I need to pray for and her family. As I started praying out loud a firefighter touched my shoulder as I prayed. My thoughts and prayers go out to Carol's family.

“ Carol had a lot of pain in her life. I hope that she has finally found peace, love and total serenity. She never had it on this earth, so I pray she finds it in heaven and her soul is at peace. I am so sorry this happened to her. Gone too soon, unable to coop with life, it's problems. She wanted to get better but couldn't make it happen or last. She meant well. She wanted help. She is in a better place now, I just feel she is in God's hands and I sincerely pray she is happy at last. My deepest sympathy to her children and family.
