The brightest lights in Carol's life were her granddaughters, Lydia and Lucie. Her home overflowed with their photos, cards, and the memories she treasured so deeply. She adored her pug, Lexi, and found joy in every moment spent with her dear friend, Eleanor Owen. Carol also cherished the camaraderie and lifelong friendships she built at the American Legion in Queenstown, MD, a place that always felt like home to her.

Carol showed her love in so many ways, especially through her cooking. An incredible cook, she delighted in preparing meals that brought everyone together. She also found peace in tending to her garden and cherished the many family gatherings at the Friedl residence. She welcomed anyone in need with an open door and an even more open heart. Her generosity was simply a part of who she was.
