

Carol N. Langkammerer

April 6, 1946 - February 18, 2012

Carol Nussmann Langkammerer of Queenstown, MD died on Saturday, February 18. She was 65.

Born in Rochester, NY on April 6, 1946, to Oscar and Hildegard Nussmann, Carol grew up in St. Louis and later Massachusetts. She majored in mathematics at Ursinus College and was recruited by IBM as a systems engineer, spending her entire career with them. She was specifically requested by IBM's most important customers for her ability to troubleshoot systems and solve problems quickly.

Carol had varied interests. She was a sailor and seamstress, pilot and gardener, mechanic and jeweler. She excelled in every endeavor, and was a dedicated NASCAR fan.

Her affection and concern for those around her was often unobserved given her quiet manner, only realized later with a kind gesture, the perfect gift, a need fulfilled.

She is survived by her husband, Carl M. Langkammerer, Jr.; her sons Robert Brooke Langkammerer of Syracuse, NY, Carl M. Langkammerer III of Preston, MD, Mark N. Langkammerer of Baltimore, MD; her niece, Karen Catron of Grasonville, MD; nephew, Bill Grossman of Wilmington, DE; and many beloved daughters-in-law, grandchildren, great nieces, great nephews and great grandchildren. She is also survived by a sister, Barbara Nussmann of Rochester, NY and brother, David Nussmann of Houston, TX.

Services will be private with a celebration of her life at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Gimble Oncology Nursing Fund, Johns Hopkins Kimmel Comprehensive Cancer Center, 100 N. Charles ST., Suite 234, Baltimore, MD 21201, or the charity of your choice.

Funeral arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester.
