When I lived in Maryland I spent a lot of warm memories with the Strokes - playing cards, eating oyster Rockefeller and numerous other great times. Truly one of the blessings was meeting the Stroke family through my relationship with Rick Smith. Love to all, Diane

“ I love these photos of Carol — her warm positive spirit comes through. She was fun and funny, and she did cool things in her life, like fishing for crabs! I'm going to miss her. Love to John Sr., John Jr., Kim, Bill, Megan, and Molly.

“ I grew up knowing my cousin Carol Jean and her sisters well, while we all lived in or near Washington, D.C. Then many years passed when I didn't see her, but in the past few years I visited her and John several times in their lovely home in Easton. What wonderful memories I have! Her smile could light up a room!

I will miss you, dear Cousin!
