

Carole Anne Clevenger

March 3, 1949 - July 9, 2020

After successfully battling cancer for over 20 years, Carole Ann Clevenger of Queenstown, MD, passed away on July 9, 2020, at the Heartland House in Grasonville. Carole was predeceased by her parents Thomas and Gloria Kane.

Carole worked for the State of Maryland at the Motor Vehicle Administration for over 50 years, forming great friendships with her co-workers. This is also where she was introduced to her future husband, Frank Clevenger. Carole and Frank were married on June 1, 1974, and have been happily married for over 46 years.

An avid baker, Carole was known for her cakes, candies, and Jello. She loved shopping (especially with her niece, Heather) and collecting seasonal décor and tea towels. Carole always gave the kids in the family pajamas and underwear for Christmas and loved to put together gift baskets for family. She loved putting packages of gifts and goodies together for her grandson, Brady in Ohio. A fan of craft shows and traveling, Carole looked forward to annual family trips to Myrtle Beach, Hollowscream at Busch Gardens, and the occasional cruise or trip to the Caribbean.

A fan of the local teams, Carole loved spending time at Camden Yards or M&T Bank Stadium with her sons cheering on the Orioles and the Ravens. When not at sports events and shopping, Carole loved to relax with a Jim Beam and ginger ale during Happy Hour at one of the local restaurants with her family. Even better, if she could sit on the water and listen to some music.

She is survived by her sons, Chris Clevenger (Samantha) and Aaron Clevenger (Stephanie); brother, Thomas "Tim" Kane; sister, Debbie Spuduck; grandchildren, Brady Kormann, Collin Deighan, and Madison Deighan; and many nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester, MD, on Wednesday, July 15, 2020, from 4-6 pm, where a service will be held on Thursday, July 16, 2020, at 11:30 am. A celebration of life will follow the service at Red Eyes Dock Bar in Grasonville.

“ Remembering years of Bday , Christmas and just general lunches and dinners with the girls from MVA. We had a lot of great times celebrating each others milestones. Children and grandchildren events, too. Carol was a wonderful, caring person who always remembered those she cared about. You will be missed. Sending prayers for her and her family and friends.💔😞🙏
