

Carolina Williams

September 1, 2014

Carolina “Carla” Boeree Williams passed away quietly in her home in Stevensville, MD, on September 1, 2014. She was 76.

Born in the Netherlands on November 25, 1937, to Karolina Schreiber and Machiel Johannes Boeree, she grew up in Haarlem, spending her young years living under the German occupation of World War II. As Carla grew older, her greatest wish was to live in the United States, and she soon had her chance by taking a position helping an American widow in London raise two small children. When the family moved back to the US, Carla accompanied them and soon started a career in Annapolis in dental office management from which she retired in 2005.

Carla is predeceased by her husband, Robert Davis Williams, and her brother Jan Karl Boeree. Carla is survived by her nephew and niece, step-children, and step-grandchildren.

Carla enjoyed a full life. Her many loves included cooking, reading, her beloved dogs and cats, traveling, and living on the water. She was multilingual and even though she was very proud of attaining her US citizenship, she never lost touch with her Dutch roots. As an advocate of life-long education, Carla also volunteered her time after retirement to the Chesapeake College’s Institute for Adult Learning.

Her strong and resilient spirit will be remembered and celebrated by friends, family and neighbors at a private location on Sunday, September 21, where an informal and casual gathering will be held. Please contact the family representative at 703-201-6674 for more information.

“ Phil and I are so sorry about Carla's passing. She was a smart and adventurous friend of ours who had so many good stories and a wonderful sense of humor. She left this world too early--but she was able to live out her last days in the place she loved--her home.

I hope that she will again be able to be with her beloved husband, Bob --somewhere in the afterlife. We will very much miss her.
