“ I have only lived in the neighborhood for a year and a half, but Caroline made me feel welcome. Sometimes she would see me outside and go out of her way to turn the car around and come by to see how I was doing, especially if I had been sick. She gave me pointers about my garden, and we enjoyed having a glass of wine together. I am so saddened by her passing and want to offer my sincerest condolences and prayers to the family. She was a lovely woman whom I shall never forget.

“ Caroline was my first friend when we moved to Easton in 1991. We met at church and were drawn to each other because we both had baby girls the same age. We spent 6 years together with activities surrounding our children. Play dates at each other’s houses, Salisbury Zoo, Oxford Park and Easton Park. We supported each other as we added children to our families, went to Bible Studies and shared a lot of our lives! We celebrated Thanksgivings together and I shared my American traditions with the Rajasingh family, including my husband Chuck “hacking the turkey” as Caroline so eloquently phrased it! We all had a good laugh! We spent a week or so together during the ice storm of 1993?? Since our house on Longwoods Road was without power, they so graciously took us in! Caroline was a delight! I enjoyed deciphering all the English words she would use like nappy, jumper, bin man, boot and bonnet to name a few. It was a sad day when we moved our family to Pennsylvania in 1997 and our last day in Easton was spent at their house. We kept in touch by Christmas cards annually and a few visits. I wish there had been more correspondence in recent years. Caroline was a dear friend and I wil always remember the amazing wonderful years we shared together! I know she will be terribly missed by all who knew her! Peace and Comfort to Christie and her beautiful children Charlotte , Liz and James! Until we meet again Caroline!

Lisa Finrock

“Caroline was our neighbor for over 25 years and we had become very close friends the past 4 years. I can recall Caroline working in her garden, mowing the yard and tending to her flowers especially during the summer break. She enjoyed teaching in Dorchester County at Maple Elementary and she touched so many Students Lives. She loved her family dearly and traveled to England to see her Auntie and valued the time she spent with her Children. When she moved to Easton Club she loved having her patio and nurtured flowers that she had kept from year to year. Especially a geranium that James had given her for Mothers Day several years ago and she kept it alive and thriving year round. Caroline joined the Christ Church Carillon Hand Bell Choir two years ago and we became partners earlier this year playing the bass bells. It was a challenge for us both. She often joined Ken and I for dinner after Hand Bell Rehearsal and we enjoyed her company and hearing about the Charlotte, James Bryant, Lizzie and James. She really enjoyed her trips to Arizona and California, for Christmas and Easter, to Charlotte's wedding, all of their Graduations and had a desire to eventually move to wherever Charlotte and James Bryant would locate to help take care of grandchildren. Unfortunately, she won't be able to do this. Caroline was one of the strongest women that I know and definitely fought cancer with all that she had. She had so much to give and will truly be missed by so many!!!! May God Bless her and her Family and I am so grateful to have known her and to have been able to call her my Friend!!

“ We have very fond memories of Caroline. Having known her from when she lived at home in Gosport with her parents and then later when she would visit with the children to our house in Gosport when we would all go sailing. On one occasion they had just walked in the door having travelled from the States and the first thing they all asked for was English fish and chips. Lovely memories and God bless you.

“ I taught first grade at Caroline’s school. I remember Caroline borrowing easy readers and using her lunch time to help children. I remember Caroline working late into the night on school preparations. I remember Caroline telling me “brilliant, lovely” when I had an idea to help students. I remember Caroline helping me with my disabled son. I will always remember Caroline.

“ Although I did not know you, I was privileged to work with your husband. Actually, I have not worked at the Easton Hospital for a number of years, I have kept up with your family though friends.

My deepest sympathy to Dr Rajasingh, your children, family and of course all the friends whose lives you impacted in such a positive way.

“ Nothing in any note or word, however eloquent, will sum up what Caroline meant to us. Nor will it amply convey the priceless legacy of memories we all have of her.

For me, Rich (better known by Caroline as ‘Tricki Woo’) she quite simply was the sister I never had. From loving banter to brother and sister rivalry, I have been left a rich tapestry of memories, which I and my family will always cherish.

Caroline’s loss to us is great, but her light shone so brightly in our lives, that even though she is gone, it will never ever go out, and her memory will never fade.

Whenever I prepare a ‘fruit de mer’ seafood dish (her favourite) I will dedicate it to Caroline in her honour.

“ Lady Caroline,

I consider it a great honor to have known you. Although we only got to meet at a few family gatherings, I will always cherish your memory. I want you to know that your kind spirit and magnetic personality always brightened my day each time that I had the privilege of being in your presence.

Thank you for teaching me "proper" English. I promise to always use the words that you taught me and remember you each time I use them to remind my brother to stop "wittering on." Thank you for the wonderful game of table tennis during the weekend of James and Charlotte's wedding. I wish we had the chance for a rematch but I am certain that you would have easily won and defended your championship. I am thankful that you are not suffering anymore but I will sorely miss you. You will live on in our hearts, in the stories that we tell each other, and the stories that I tell my son.

May you in peace Lady Caroline.
