

Carolyn Brown Butler

October 18, 1936 - May 13, 2012

Carolyn Brown Butler of Chestertown, MD, died on Sunday, May 13, 2012, at the University of Maryland Hospital in Baltimore from complications of surgery. She was 75.

She was born in Goldsboro, MD, on October 18, 1936, the daughter of the late, John Harold Brown Sr. and Anna Jackson Brown. Carolyn worked at Playtex in Dover, DE, as a bookkeeper with Fox Canning Company in Cordova, MD, and as a hairdresser at Libby's in Goldsboro, MD. She also worked for Acme Markets in Chestertown as a cashier where many will remember her. She retired from Acme after 17 years due to kidney failure.

Carolyn received her first kidney transplant in 1993 from the University of Maryland Hospital and was on the donor list for her second. Her greatest joy in life was her family and friends. She also enjoyed gardening, cooking, baking, and watching her grandson play baseball.

She is survived by her daughter, Cheryl M. Butler and her boyfriend, James P. Joine; a grandson, Brendon T. Butler all of Chestertown, MD; two brothers, John H. Brown, Jr. and Alda J. Brown all of Goldsboro, MD; and two longtime friends, William CB Kerr of Rock Hall, MD, and Ellen Cahall of Goldsboro, MD; along with two nieces and two nephews.

Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, May 17, at 1:00 PM at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Road, in Chestertown where relatives and friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Private interment will follow at Hollywood Cemetery in Harrington, DE.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Trinity United Methodist Church in Goldsboro, MD.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It is so hard to lose a loved one no matter what their age may be. However, try to think of the joy that will be when God will "wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more" (Revelation 21:4) and then we will be able to enjoy countless generations. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.
