

Carolyn W. Hanger

September 13, 1928 - September 8, 2021

Carolyn Jean Welch Hanger, age 92, passed away on September 8, 2021, in Easton, MD. She was born in Chicago, IL, on September 13, 1928, to Charles Webster Welch and Alma Esther Lindsay Welch.

An accomplished pianist, Carolyn earned a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Northwestern University. After college, Carolyn married Kenneth Hall Hanger, raised a family of four children, and settled in Potomac, MD.

Carolyn exemplified true motherhood throughout her life; she also loved playing bridge and gardening. Playing the piano was a life-long passion of Carolyn's, even giving a recital at her 90th birthday celebration. She taught piano lessons and headed up the choral section of the Suburban Women's Club in Bethesda, MD. Carolyn was also active in the Women's Club, and, in the early 1970s, she served for a period as the club's President. Later, Carolyn attended the nursing program at the Montgomery County Community College. She interned at the Montgomery General Hospital and the George Washington Hospital in Washington, DC. Carolyn and her husband eventually resettled to Easton, MD, to enjoy the Eastern Shore where she was active in the Talbot County Women's Club.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth H. Hanger, and her sister, Marlene Gail Welch Lee Ruggieri. Carolyn is survived by her four children, Kenneth H. Hanger Jr., Cathryn Hanger Namath, Eric Welch Hanger, and John Gregory Hanger; twelve grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Following her wishes, no funeral services will be held. The family wishes to express their appreciation to Talbot Hospice staff and to all her caregivers, nurses, and doctors, for their dedicated care and support to Carolyn. In lieu of flowers, a memorial donation may be made to Talbot Hospice at <https://talbothospice.org>.
