February 1, 1918 - March 19, 2018

Carolyn Vinci passed away peacefully on March 19, 2018, in Easton, MD. She was born on Feb. 1, 1918, in Walsenburg, CO, to Sicilian immigrant parents. The family eventually relocated to the East Coast, and she grew up in New Haven, CT.

Carolyn moved to Washington, DC, after graduating from high school and began a long career with the federal government. She relocated her family to the DC area in the 1940's and was the matriarch of her family. She worked for many years for the Bureau of the Budget, US Army, at the Pentagon, while at the same time attending college in the evening. She graduated from The George Washington University with honors as a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Carolyn worked for the National Academy of Sciences for a few years after retiring from the federal government. She then relocated from Arlington, VA, to St. Michael's, MD, where she built a house with a breathtaking waterfront view. Her hobbies included sewing, reading, Japanese embroidery in which she became an expert, and investing.

She was predeceased by her partner of many years, Earl Altizer; her parents, Luminato and Concetta Vinci; and her siblings, Stefano Vinci, Francis Vinci, Anthony Vinci, Josephine V. Miller, and Rose V. Burke. She is survived by seven nieces and nephews; their children; brother-in-law, Francis D. Burke; and dear friend, Drusilla Barnett.

The family is grateful to Talbot Hospice for the care and comfort shown to her.

To the family of Carolyn you have lost a treasure. I had the good fortune of meeting her through Earl in the mid 1970's. He idealized her. Then right after that I became a member of EGA and got to learn how to do some expert stitching from her. She was surpassed by none and I hope you all cherish her pieces, because you have know idea what Master Pieces you have inherited!! Always a lovely lady who put her God before all else. I know you will miss her till the end of you days. It has been my pleasure to know such a lovely and talented lady. Danna M. Murden

To the Vinci nieces and nephews. I have searched for Carolyn and your family for a long time and I just found this obit tonight. I loved her and miss her terribly. She had a long and wonderful life and career. The last time I called her she was really confused and couldn't figure out who I was. After a while she determined that I was my mother and the call made her happy. I have so many happy memories of the times I spent with all the Vinci's. You came from a lovely family and I hope you remember your aunts and uncles with joy. I do.
