“ To the Morgan Family: We met Mr. Morgan when we purchased a car from him in Easton many years ago after we first got married in 1970. He was a wonderful salesman and truly stuck to his word and would even come and pick up the car for service and leave us one. We also purchased another one from him some years after that. We know you have many, many fond memories of him that will be cherished in your hearts forever. We extend our deepest sympathy and prayers to your family at this time. May God Bless each one of you and give you peace, love and strength to get through this difficult time. Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville, Md.
