“ Stephanie,

Richard and I were at the funeral. We did not approach you that day. I did not think you were ready to talk. It was good to see Carroll Sr. grave. Weasel still does beer at OTR. I am sure not as good as Carroll did.

I hope we will be able to get together in the future. Anna is living in Ohio, she would like to get together with you too.

Take Care,

“ Dear Carroll,

I know you can hear my voice, even if your mother chooses otherwise. Your spirit soars free until the body is buried.

I will remember the wonderful times walking with you to the park, holding your hand and swinging you on the swings. These are the good times I choose to remember. God Speed.

Love,

Aunt Patsy###imported-begin##Patti Golebieski###imported-end##

“ Dear Golebieski family,

I'm so sorry for your loss. I know you probably don't remember me, but I was at Tim Walker's cabin on Memorial Day for several years before father Carroll's illness made it imposible for you folks to be there. My little white dog, Opal, and I would always say 'Hi" to you when you were at Tim's party. Please accept my deepest sympathies.
