“ Lori, Megan, and Ron our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Your heart is breaking, and you feel so empty, with so many questions. You may never know the answer. Keep Carson memory alive with all the good times. You will be comforted with the tears. No one will ever experience the pain you are going through unless they have lost a child. My heart bleeds with you! I love you all. Aunt Sharon & Uncle Harvey

“ I struggle to find the words to express my deepest sympathy and sorrow.
There was a time when Shawn and Carson were inseparable. Those days were filled with constant laughter and smiles. I will treasure those memories.
I will always remember Carson's humor and the smile he brought to all of those around him.
Your family is in our prayers.

“ As a young boy, Carson was at our house many times with our Grandson, Sam. We also enjoyed watching him play football with his many friends. He was so pleasant and nice.....we were pleased to have known him. One of our nicest memories of Carson was when he jumped in to help Sam spread mulch in our yard. When Sam's Grandfather offered him money, he did not want to accept it.

“ I remember a quiet night when you were just 2 or 3. I was staying over on the couch. You started to cry, so I came in your room and scooped you up. I held you in my arms and talked to you about all my dreams for you: love, joy, adventure, happiness. You just silently stared at me (probably thinking how crazy your Aunt Abbey was). I will never forget the time we shared my dear sweet nephew. My heart breaks for you Carson Freedman. May you rest in peace knowing I love you unconditionally and forever.
