“ This first year has been extremely hard, especially on Teresa. I just wanted you to know how proud I am of her for being such a strong and inspiring role model for your grand children. You would be proud of what she has been able to accomplish through her grief. I'll tell you all about it when we meet again. Love and miss you. Krista #1

“ what a wonderful kind hearted sweet loving woman Cass was, she absolutely adored her grandchildren and Teresa was her heart and soul. She was with her soulmate Rich for more than 30 years of her life. From the very first time I met her I knew she was a special angel who touched everyone she met. Prayers and love to all

“ Cass was one of the best moms I know! She always put her family first- she loved unconditionally, and, she was one of the most compassionate people I knew. She humbly asked God to let her live to see her grandchildren's graduations. She deeply respected and loved her beloved husband, Rich. Although Cass's spirit is with us, she will be greatly missed!

“ I miss my Aunt dearly. I am forever grateful for the many, many conversations we shared these last few years. Aunt Cass always saw the best in people. She has touched the lives of so many. Her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those she has touched, me includes. She is my Angel and will be truly missed. I love you Aunt Cass.
