

Chad B. Coultas

April 12, 1988 - November 2, 2023

It is with deep sorrow and much love that the family of Chad Benjamin Coultas announce his passing on November 2, 2023, at the age of 35 years.

Chad was born on April 12, 1988, to Vernon and Darla Coultas at Anne Arundel Hospital. He grew up in Queen Anne, MD and graduated from Queen Annes County High School in 2006. After graduating he did lawn and landscaping work. He loved the great outdoors, hunting, camping, boating, hiking, and sitting around a campfire at night. Those were a few of the things Chad loved to do, but fishing was his true passion. No matter what he caught, how big or small, he was in his happy place while fishing. He was also a Ravens football fan, and he loved to make people laugh. His caring heart and dimpled smile will never be forgotten and will be in our hearts forever.

Chad will be greatly missed by his parents Vernon and Darla, his loving sister Stephanie Hope, brother-in-law Kenny Hope, his niece Abbye Duabach, nephew Alex Hope, grandmother Katherine Legg, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Weldon Legg, Sr., aunt and uncle Tommy & Teena Alton, whom he loved dearly. Also, paternal grandparents Lee & Bonnie Coultas.

A celebration of life will be schedule for spring of 2024 and will be announced at a later date.
