“ I met Chad when he was at a crossroads in his life and watched him grow into a wonderful, responsible young man. I was blown away when his father called me and told me what happened. My mind tells me he was too young and gone too soon but I know God doesn't make mistakes. I watched the video and know he loved and in return has left many precious memories with all who knew him. I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family and know you are in my prayers.

I can't thank you enough for everything you did for me that night. and I won't forget the first night I went to josh's with you and I was scared to go to the bathroom by myself and wanted someone to walk inside with me, and you offered to come with me. you gave me the strength i needed that night. i can't thank you enough for the memories you left me with. i'm sure you are in heaven now fishing and having such a good time. keep giving us signs too let us know you are up there and you are okay and having fun. rest in paradise beautiful angel. we miss you!*

“ We would like to express our heartfelt sympathy. Our hearts goes out to the family and friends because death is something that we will never get used to. In fact, God's word refer to death as a enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26)

“ Chad was one of the sweetest guys. He never failed to make me laugh or make me smile. I will never forget the bonfires, the parties, going to the mall and acting like you were going to leave us there, nights at the landing, nights at the park and ride, even just the day you came to pick us up and you got to meet my dad, or the day at one of the bonfires when i was crying and you walked with me and just said "are you okay, everything will be alright" and gave me a hug. He will live on in our hearts forever. I am gonna miss your beautiful smile or our contagious laugh, i'm going to miss you SO much Chad. Rest in paradise <3

“ This is such a shock and I will never understand why this happened to such a great guy. My thoughts are with his family, friends and Jaime. Chad will never really be gone because we will all live for him. I wish I could thank Chad one last time for making me laugh and smile one fourth of July when all I wanted to do was cry. He made sure that night was fun and it means a lot to me although it was a few years ago. Rest In Peace Chad, and watch over your favorite island while you fish and hunt up there with God. ?

“ I was blessed to see Chad twice a day 5 days a week for 2 years. Chad was always polite and respectful...I adored him and his sister Alana..(beautiful kids) I was their school bus driver to Kent Island High. Chad always greeted me with a nod of his head and a sweet smile...some of Chads friends (my students) and my granddaughter, call and telling me their memories and stories of Chad...these beautiful kids hearts are so heavy and they're so devastated over the loss of their friend.

Please Dear God, wrap your arm's and have Chads angel's wrap their wing's lovingly and tightly around his family, around Jamie and his friends to give them strength and help guide us all through this horrific loss. Im so so sorry for your loss...I will carry Chad in my heart always.

*To all, I give you my prayers, my heart, my love. XOXOX

To Chad's Family: We do not know your family personally, but felt like you need to know that many people are praying for you. Your son sounded like he was an outstanding young man and loved by so many. We always ask the question "why", but never get the answer. God has a purpose and someday you will find out the reason "why". Many blessings to your family and his memories will always remain in your hearts. God Bless, Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.

“ I don't even know where to begin with this. Chad was the best at making people smile. His laugh was contagious. Some how he managed to entertain me for a years worth of pushing carts outside of Safeway. There was never a dull moment with this boy! It's hard to believe it's been almost 3 years since our last real conversation. Had I known that would be the last time we would get to talk like that I would have had a lot more to say. I know God has a special place for Chad in heaven. Probably somewhere next to a lake with a big fishing pole and some worms. Rest in peace. Gone but never forgotten. <3

“ My favorite thing about Chad was his warm heart, always trying to help everyone out, and he always had a smile on his face while doing it. I had the pleasure of working with him and you couldn't ask for a better guy. God has other plans for you Chad, I wish they weren't so soon but I know you will always be around, every sunrise and sunset over the bay... May your family and all of your loved ones have the strength and peace to overcome the sadness, and rejoice on the cherished memories of you that they have with them for eternity.... may you rest in peace

“ I usually can't stand kids in your age group Chad but upon recommendation of your mother we met and became friends and our friendship will never be forgotten. You had hit a couple of typical speed bumps that have almost become a rite of passage to adulthood. Many young men your age fail to learn and continue down the wrong path. YOU, did not do that, you asked for advice and listened. Then you set out to become a better and stronger member of society.

You gave me hope in your generation, you gave me a friendship that will be missed dearly. You brightened the lives of so many, you made your mother proud, you made me proud. You made my life a better place to be, thank you, for being Chad.
