“ Your father (grandfather) officiated when my late husband and I were married December 28, 1973, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Park River, ND. Your parents and mine became good friends during the time he was our minister. Later, Charlene and I served on the board of the North Dakota State P.E.O. Chapter. I met her for lunch in Annapolis several years ago .Good memories of a lovely couple. They gave much of themselves and were much appreciated...so thankful to have shared in their lives.

“ I spent many evenings over the past few years, sitting and talkin with Mrs Woodard. She loved her family dearly and it showed in the stories she would share. She was a very loving mother to her children and I saw their devotion to her as well. She will be missed in the hearts of many.
