

Charles Theophilus Breeding

January 12, 1930 - October 23, 2021

Charles Theophilus Breeding of Stevensville, MD, died Saturday October 23, 2021, at University of Maryland Shore Medical Center at Easton, MD. He was 91.

Born in Stevensville, MD, on January 12, 1930, he was the son of the late Harry Purnell and Jennie Norman Breeding.

Ted attended Stevensville High School and graduated from Randolph Macon Academy in Front Royal, VA. After one year of college, he was called home due to his father, mother, brother, and aunt's death, all within a year. He decided to take over the family farm Ellendale, continuing its success for fifty years. Ted loved his "Kent Island" especially his childhood and growing up there as he remembered in his youth walking behind mules to cultivate and plant the fields.

In 1956, Ted married Janet Bryan and during those wonderful sixty-five years of marriage they traveled to Europe and much of the United States. Living mainly on Kent Island, they also maintained a home in Matlacha, FL, for twenty years making many loving friends.

Ted is survived by his loving wife, Janet Bryan Breeding of Stevensville, MD; sons, Charles Theophilus Breeding, Jr. (Edith) of Grasonville, MD, and Christopher Bryan Breeding (Patricia) of Stevensville, MD; grandchildren, Samantha Anne Breeding, Christopher Owen Breeding (April), Ethan Bryan Breeding and Charles Theophilus Breeding, III; great-granddaughter, Isabel Grace Breeding.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brothers, Harry Samuel, William Frank, Owen Bryan, and Norman Clarence, as well as a sister, Janet Breeding Yost.

There will be a celebration of life in the very near future.

Memorial contributions can be made to a charity of your choice.
