

Charles Woodrow Faulkner

July 25, 1930 - May 22, 2024

Charles Woodrow Faulkner, 93, of Tilghman, MD died at The Pines on May 22nd, 2024.

Woody was born in Easton, MD on July 25, 1930, the son of Mary Catherine Roe and Charles L. Faulkner. Woody attended St. Michaels High School.

Woody married the lovely Carmelita Young at age 20. They raised 4 caring children. He was a very giving man. He also provided a home for his mother-in-law and uncle until their passings.

Woody enjoyed spending time with his family, friends, and pets. He lived at his family homestead on the water down Bar Neck for the majority of his life.

Woody was a lifetime member of the Tilghman Island Fire department, serving over 55 years. He was a member of AA with 50+ years of devotion. He was a member of the St. John's Chapel and the Tilghman Methodist Church. He enjoyed the life of a waterman and all it had to offer. He was also an excellent carpenter. Woody enjoyed spending time at The Fairbanks tackle on the Island sharing stories and laughter.

After losing his beloved wife, Carmelita, in 1984, he shared many wonderful years with the late Mary Kinnamon. He married the lovely Etheldeen Tyler in 1998. They shared a wonderful life together.

Woody was privileged to travel the United States in his later years with Sharon Sharp. He was always ready for an adventure.

Woody is survived by his four children, Alan, Gary, Vickie, and Danette. Five grandchildren Chelsea, Matthew, Dylan, Dalton, and Garret. Two stepgrandchildren, River, and Jake; three Greatgrandchildren Addison, Declan, and Rose.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, May 31, 2024, at the St. John's Chapel, Tilghman, MD, where friends and family may visit. A viewing will happen from 2 PM to 4 PM. Services will immediately follow. Fellowship meal to follow the service at the Tilghman Island Volunteer Fire Company.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial contribution to the Tilghman Island Volunteer Fire Company.
