

Charles Edward Horne Jr

August 21, 1959 - May 9, 2021

Charles Edward Horne Jr., known by friends and family as “Ed”, passed away on Sunday, May 9th, 2021. He was 61 years old.

Ed was born on August 21st, 1959 in Augusta, Georgia. After graduating high school, Ed went on to serve in the Navy. He decided that military life was not for him, and eventually found his talent in machinery. After meeting his wife and moving to Centreville in the early 1990’s, he started his career with Dixon Valve & Coupling Company in Chestertown as a Journeyman Machinist where he worked until retiring in June 2019. He was very good as his job and will be dearly missed by his former associates.

Ed is predeceased in death by his father, Charles Edward Horne, Sr., his brother Stephen Horne, as well as his dogs in heaven that he loved more than anything, including Dakota and Nicki.

Ed is survived by his wife, Virginia “Ginny” Williams of Centreville, his son Michael “Mike” Joseph Edward Welsh, his son Thomas “Tommy” Edward Horne, Virginia’ son Jonathan (Natasha) Williams, his siblings Jamie Brown, Lisa Yerkes, and Michael Horne, his nieces Christy Horne and Natalie Horne, and his two beloved dogs Bailey and Sage.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Animal Welfare League of Queen Anne County, www.awlqac.org or any other independent animal rescue.

“ I will miss talking about shop, grass care, and home projects. They say as long as someone is thinking of you, you are never really gone....I will think of you often, you will be missed my friend!
