“ I just learned about Bill's death this evening. I am so sorry I missed his service. He cleaned the SAO office where I worked until I retired in 2012. I ALWAYS looked forward to his cleaning days. He did a great job & we usually had a few minutes to chat. He really was a kind & gentle soul & spoke of his love of our Lord always. He is home with his loved ones now, most especially his Mom💕.

“ Billy loved Jesus and was never afraid to share it. As a church greeter I loved to greet him and shake his hand. He always had something to say about his Love of Jesus and filled my heart with joy! I am honored to be called his brother in Christ and look forward to seeing him again. Hey Billy if you see my wife in Heaven say hi. She would love to meet you! Peace with you my brother. 🙏
