

Charles Meacher

June 26, 1944 - December 15, 2025

Charles Meacher, 81, passed away peacefully on December 15 at his home in Trappe, Maryland, surrounded by family.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Agnes and Courtney Meacher. He is survived by his beloved spouse of 46 years, Helen Meacher, and his children: Nichole Perry, Courtney Meacher, Michele Prasch, and Sherry Preis. He was a proud grandfather to seven grandchildren, a loving great-grandfather to one great-grandchild, and a devoted grandfather to his cherished granddog.

Charles and his family moved to Trappe in 1979, where he began working as a waterman on the Eastern Shore, reflecting his strong work ethic and deep connection to the community. He later joined EarthData, where he dedicated 31 years of service before retiring.

Family and friends are invited to gather for a viewing on Monday, December 22, at 11:00 a.m., with a funeral service immediately following at 12:00 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Easton, Maryland. A graveside service will follow. Afterward, all are welcome to join the family for fellowship and a reception at the local VFW.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to the Ridgely Lions Club in Charles's memory.

The family extends heartfelt gratitude for the love, prayers, and support shown during this time.
