

Charles Richard Monath

September 4, 1944 - March 11, 2015

Charles Richard Monath of Chester, MD, died March 11, 2015, at Anne Arundel Medical Center surrounded by his family. He was 70.

Born on September 4, 1944, in Baltimore, MD, to the late John G. Monath and Helen Gumpman Monath, he grew up on Kent Island, where he graduated from Stevensville High School. On November 29, 1964, he married Phyllis Porter, and they resided in Chester, MD. Charles was a plumber and spent 40 years working for John R. Crocker in Easton, MD, until he retired in 2008. After retirement he drove for Chester Wye.

He loved his pets and was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Centreville, MD.

Charles is survived by his wife of 50 years, Phyllis Porter Monath, and many nieces and nephews.

Service will be held at a later date.
