

Charles Edward Nesbitt Sr.

September 19, 1931 - October 23, 2023

Charles Edward Nesbitt Sr. of Centreville, MD died peacefully in his home on October 23, 2023. He was 92 years old. A beloved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, friend, teacher and Hall of Fame coach, Charles touched the lives of all those fortunate to know him.

Born on September 19, 1931 in Statesville, NC, he was the son of Flake Bennett and Ellen (Bratcher) Nesbit and the second of four children. Charles is predeceased by his parents, his elder brother Linwood and the love of his life and wife of 37 years, Shirley (Jackson) Nesbitt. He is survived by his younger siblings Harry Nesbit (Statesville, NC) and Jewell (Nesbit) Gaither (South Plainfield, NJ); son Charles Edward Jr. and daughter-in-law Helen Donnelly (Montclair, NJ); son Sean Alan Nesbitt (Annapolis, MD); grandson Kody Charles Nesbitt; two step-granddaughters Ilona Suzanne and Natalie Marie Toth; and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

A skilled athlete from an early age, Charles grew up playing basketball, baseball, football and track. He was awarded an athletic scholarship to play wide receiver at North Carolina A&T University, where he also participated in ROTC training. Upon graduation from college in 1954 with his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education, he joined the U.S. Army in 1955, serving honorably for three years in Germany and state side.

In 1959, having completed his military service, Charles left Statesville to answer Maryland's call for new teachers. He began teaching science and physical education at Kennard, Queen Anne's County's (QAC) then all black high school. Soon after moving to Maryland, he met Shirley Ann Jackson, a fellow educator who, like Charles, had recently left her childhood home in Fredericksburg, VA in search of new opportunities. They married on December 29, 1963 and set about making Centreville their forever home.

Charles worked tirelessly to overcome the reality of "separate but equal" at Kennard to ensure every student he taught and athlete he coached had an opportunity to succeed. In 1964, Nesbitt convinced the QAC school board to allow interracial competition between Kennard and the other all-white schools within the county. When the desegregated QAC High School opened in 1966, Nesbitt became the school's track and cross country coach. He led QACHS to their first-ever Bayside Championship, and started the indoor track program in 1979. He continued to coach well after he retired from teaching in 1998. In recognition of his many coaching achievements, he was inducted to both the QA and MD State athletic "Hall of Fame".

An avid gardener, golfer, hunter, fisherman, BBQ master, handyman and perennial jokester, Charles spent his retirement years always on the go. He was an active NC A&T alumni, often traveling to home games and hosting renowned tailgates. He continued in his civic duties, serving for many years on Centreville's Town Zoning Committee, the QA Republican Central Committee, and as an active member of the American Legion and V.F.W. Post. In 2022 at their annual Gala, Charles was the Kennard Alumni Association's honoree, citing his 38 year teaching career and the instrumental role he played in the restoration of the old Kennard H.S into the Kennard African American Cultural Heritage Center and Museum.

“ Sending condolences and prayers of comfort to the Nesbitt family. I met Mr. Nesbitt on the third Sunday in November 31 years ago at a DELMARVA Alumni Chapter of NC A&T State University at the home of Gene Trent in Accomac, Virginia. From the day I met him and the other charter members of the chapter, he demonstrated Aggie Pride in every way. He was the treasurer of the chapter for its entire active years and never missed any meetings held throughout the Eastern Shore of Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia. At the end of the meeting, he always had vegetables from his garden for members. He, along with Mr. Robert Capers, coordinated Hardees' chicken snack packs for the Aggie basketball teams when they were playing in the area for 20 or more years. He and Mr. Bill Alston would also support out of state games and regional meetings. They invited me to come along. When he stopped traveling to A&T's Homecomings, he would give me tickets to events that he supported. Once our chapter became inactive and prior to his illness, he was very dedicated to periodic phone check-ins with A&T updates and news about members. He was also a season ticket holder to Delaware State University football games. You could always find him in his favorite spot along the wall with some yummy hot sausages on the grill after the games. Mr. Nesbitt is the last of the DELMARVA charter members to transition to AGGIELAND in the sky. I wish every Aggie who has to move to a new city could experience the devoted, welcoming, and nurturing experience that Charles Nesbitt, Sr. demonstrated to other Aggies and especially to me for the past 31 years .

“ This is a sincere expression and appreciation to Charles Nesbit, the teacher, the coach, but most importantly, the transformational human leader. Having experienced him in the world of segregation, his character and good humor had a tremendous impact on those of us who had to transition into the integrated world at QACHS. His presence and, at critical times, his counsel was important for my successful development in that new, unfamiliar world. With expressions of appreciation and condolences, I send this message with love and prayers for strength and eventual peace for the Nesbitt family. Sterlind Sylvester Burke, Sr.

“ Mr. Nesbitt was my track coach in high school. I'll always remember how he smiled and yelled, “Get those knees up, Cupani!” At the time we didn't know that I have asthma and there was no good explanation for why I was so slow and almost always got last in my races. But he didn't get mad or make me feel like I shouldn't be on the team. He just shook his head and smiled.

I was good at most things I stuck with back then, but not track. I usually quit the hard things back then, but not track. In track, I only won one race in four years and I got lapped three or four times during most of our indoor races. But I stuck with it probably because Mr. Nesbitt and Ms. Pinkett made me feel like it was ok to lose and to keep participating even though I was awful. It was one of the most important lessons I learned in high school and I will be forever in their debt.

I hope he has entered a most deserved and peaceful rest. He had such a broad and lasting impact.
