

Charles B Riter

December 16, 1942 - October 21, 2021

Charles B. Riter, 78, of Easton, MD, has passed away on October 21, 2021, surrounded by loved ones.

Charles was born on December 16, 1942, to Max Riter and Jeannette Finn. After Charles graduated from high school, he pursued a college education at Ole Miss then went on to get his MBA from Texas Tech.

After graduation, he worked in Market Research for companies: Pillsbury, W.B. Doner Advertising, and Riter Research. Charles was passionate about his job and loved what he did for a living.

Charles was very involved in his community, he was the previous President of the Board of Directors for Talbot Humane, and previously on the Board of Directors for the Avalon Theater, a member of Pinelands Preservation Alliance, involved in the Tidewater Camera Club, and in the Cape May Photography Club.

Charles is survived by his loving wife: Harriett Riter; his children: David (Debbie) Riter of Owings Mills, MD, and Daniel (Robyn) Riter of Pikesville, MD; his sister: Barbara Riter of Providence, RI; his brother: Stephen Riter of Scottsdale, AZ; his six grandchildren: Samantha, Rachel, Becca, Max, Jesse, and Jack; and one great-grandchild: James.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Talbot Hospice, Talbot Humane, and/or Talbot Interfaith Shelter.

Jerry and I always had such nice conversations with Charles and Harriett on their dogs walks. Such a talented and kind man, Charles will surely be missed in our Cape May community.
