

Charles Daniel Russell

July 27, 1944 - February 20, 2017

Charles Daniel “Buck” Russell, Jr., died on February 20, 2017. He was 72 years old. Born on July 27, 1944, in Baltimore, MD, he was the son of the late Charles D. Russell, Sr., and Emma Kessner.

Buck grew up in West Virginia and the Linthicum area. He loved hunting waterfowl and fishing. He was an avid lacrosse and football player throughout and beyond his high school years. His real passion in life was BWI Corporation, an international freight forwarder/customs house broker, which was founded in 1975, with his late partners, Donald J. Kuhl and Ray Anthony.

Buck is survived by his wife of eight years, Jean Russell of Chester, MD; his son, Justin Hamilton; his sisters, Mary Ann Moore of Edgewater, FL, Barbara Fraiser of Pasadena, MD, and Brenda Helwig of Pasadena, MD; his brother, Paul Wheat of Edgewater, FL. He was preceded in death by his sister, Decretia “Pat” DeFloria.

A funeral service will be at 5 PM on February 24, 2017, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, MD, where a visitation will be held from 6PM – 8PM on Thursday February 23, 2017. Burial will be at Meadow Ridge Cemetery in Elkridge, MD, on Saturday February 25, 2017, at 11AM.

“ *Lou & I were just heart broken when we heard the news of Bucks's passing on Thursday night. We cherished the good times we had together with Buck (& you too Jean!) These are memories we hold closely & some we've even been able to share with others because they were that good! Lou said he is really going to miss his crappie fishing buddy!
May Buck now, Rest in Peace.
With our love, Lou & Dawn*
