“ Charlie gave so much to the youth of the community, taking on the role of the guy who everyone yelled at to make sure that a game was safe and fair. I'm sure that if heaven needs someone to call balls and strikes, he will be volunteering up there as well.

“ We were fortunate to be able to spend some time with Charlie a couple years ago when he came to stay with Kurt and his family. He came to our house to fish a little and then we sat with him at Camden's ball game. It was nice seeing him and spending time with him. We will have those memories of him to hang on to.
Rest in peace Charlie.
