

Charles H. Wieland III

January 13, 1922 - December 30, 2012

Charles Harry Wieland, III, of Easton passed away on December 30, 2012, at his home after a long and happy life.

Born January 13, 1922, he was the son of the late Jennie Elizabeth Bourne and Charles Harry Wieland Jr. He began his education at the Longwoods one room schoolhouse. He then attended the South Street School (presently the Academy of the Arts), and in 1938, he graduated from Idlewild High School. He attended Salisbury State Teachers College for two years.

After working at the Peoples Ice Company he enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps in 1941 where he attained the rank of Major. He was stationed with the first command at Mitchell Field, NY, and there he met Betty Wilcox whom he married in 1943.

Charles, known to his friends as “Bud”, devoted his business career to helping individuals and families invest in life insurance and retirement plans, working primarily with Connecticut Mutual. He was the first Certified Life Underwriter (CLU) on Delmarva and was widely respected in his field.

Charles was active in the Easton community, helping to re-establish the Chamber of Commerce, volunteering for Waterfowl Festival, the Izaak Walton League recycling program and Chesapeake Maritime Museum. He served as president of the YMCA, Rotary Club, AARP, Izaak Walton, and was a member of the Grace Lutheran Church.

He enjoyed gardening, fellowship with friends, boating, crabbing, fishing, and life on the Miles River where he lived with his wife of 69 years. Charles is survived by his wife, Betty Wieland; two sisters; two brothers; and six children, Charles H. Wieland IV (Sandy), William Wieland (Becky), Tommy Wieland, Sally Smith (Andy), Debbie Meredith (Paul), and Robert Wieland (Leigh Anne); 14 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his sister, Betty Jane, and grandson, Matthew.

A funeral service will be held at the Grace Lutheran Church on Sunday January 6, 2013, at 2:30 p.m. with a visitation one hour prior to service. A private interment will be held at a later date at The Maryland Eastern Shore Veterans Cemetery.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers donations be made to Talbot Hospice, 586 Cynwood Dr. Easton, MD 21601 or Grace Lutheran Church, III Brookletts Ave. Easton, MD 21601.

“ My condolences to the Wieland Family. May you find comfort during this very difficult time in your lives. The loss of a dear loved one is heartbreaking, but we can find comfort from Gods word. John 5:28,29 assures us of a promise made from God that our dear loved ones sleeping in death would hear Jesus voice and come out of their memorial tombs. God promises to resurrect them back to life on a paradise earth where sickness and death will be no more. Revelation 21:4 Isaiah 25:8. What a wonderful promise to look forward to seeing our dear loved one again.
