

Charles Robert Wooters

June 14, 1946 - November 28, 2024

Charles Robert Wooters passed peacefully on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 2024.

He was born June 14, 1946 in Millsboro, Delaware to Mary Elizabeth and Howard H. Wooters, Sr. Charles attended Talbot Co schools.

Charlie grew up in Cordova and soon became an icon. He was a Lifetime member of Cordova Volunteer Fire Department. Later in life, he earned the title of the Unofficial Mayor of Cordova. He was a devout collector of cans. He was a sociable guy who knew no strangers and had a way of capturing your heart. Charlie loved to watch his brother, JR and nephew, Steve play softball and enjoyed local games for the youth in Cordova.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents and his Beloved Brother, Howard "Junior" Wooters, "Bud" to Charlie.

He is survived by his Nephew, Steven Wooters (Tracie); a Niece, Cheryl Wooters Hughes (Al) and his Sister-in-law Bonnie Lee Wooters. He leaves behind several great nieces and great nephews, Brandt Wooters (Juliette), Ashley Ward (Shawn), Bradley Hughes (Jenna), Krista Seese (Dylan), Lindsay Cappa (Steve), Kaitlyn Gambrill (Matt) and several Great Great Nieces and Nephews. Also, special friends: Mark Sump, Duane and Michael Ann Sard, Clifford Harris, Scott and Kehaulani Ke Shuart. Charlie also had a special friendship with Vernon Dulin and Gordon Behrens.

Celebration of Life will be held at Cordova Fire Hall on December 15th, 2024 starting at 2 pm.
