

Charles E. Thomas

April 27, 1916 - October 11, 2011

Charles Emanuel Thomas of Stevensville formerly, of Mardela Springs, MD, died Tuesday October 11, 2011 at the Heartland House Assisted Living in Grasonville, MD. He was 95.

Born April 27, 1916 in New York City, his family soon moved to Washington, D.C. He attended Columbia Junior High School and was a graduate of McKinley Technical High School. He then went to Benjamin Franklin University for accounting and business and graduated in June 1939 with a B.C.S. He married June Klohr and, in 1940, he began his career with the federal government working with the Washington, D.C. Post Office. Charles wouldn't stay long with the post office. He would serve in the Army during WWII and, after he was honorably discharged, he returned to work with the Internal Revenue Service in the audit division in New York. He would soon return to Washington, D.C. for several years as he assisted in the investigation with Watergate. He was later transferred to the Salisbury Maryland office with criminal division and intelligence divisions. Charles worked on many federal tax cases on the lower eastern shore until the office closed and he would commute to Baltimore until his retirement in the late 1970's. During their retirement in Mardela Springs, MD he enjoyed country living. He especially enjoyed caring for his home and yard, and loved to cut his lawn with his "baby" his 1952 Ford tractor. His wife predeceased him in 1996. He moved to Kent Island to be closer to family for the past 7 years. He is survived by his son C. Edgar Thomas and his wife Dolores of Alabama; a daughter Judith L. Strawser and her husband Charles of Stevensville, MD; and four grandchildren: Chase Thomas, Lance Thomas, Shauna Strawser and Tyler Strawser. In addition to his wife he was predeceased by a daughter Diane J. Willard (2011) and a sister Marion Miller.

A graveside service will be held on Saturday October 15, 2011 at Fort Lincoln Cemetery in Bladensburg, MD at 1PM.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc. 255 Comet Drive Centreville, MD 21617.
