

Charles Harry Wagner

June 9, 2000

Charles Harry Wagner of Easton died on Friday, June 9, 2000 at the Memorial Hospital, Easton. He was 70.

Born in Preston on December 13, 1929, he was the son of the late John B., Sr. and Margaret Franklin Wagner. His step-mother, Virginia Wagner, is also deceased. He attended public school in Preston and then served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. Following his release from active duty, he took a position with the Star Democrat from 1953-1984. While at the Star Democrat, he printed the first Waterfowl Festival book. He later worked as a printer for Economy Printing and Laser Letters, both in Easton.

Mr. Wagner was a member of the American Legion Post 70, Easton, the Moose Lodge #1520, Easton, and AARP. He loved woodworking as a hobby.

In addition to his wife, the former Barbara Bramble, whom he married on June 26, 1954, he is survived by two daughters, Debra L. Willey and her husband, Richard, of Harmony, and Cindy L. Saulsbury of Easton; two brothers, Thomas Wagner of Cambridge and John Wagner, Jr. of Bethlehem; three sisters, Ann Fisher of Federalsburg, Leona Moore of Middleville, MI, and Helen Mills of Archdale, NC; four grandchildren, Heather Saulsbury and Aaron Saulsbury, both of Easton, and J.W. Willey and Jason R. Willey, both of Harmony.

Funeral services will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home, Easton on Wednesday, June 14, 2000 at 11:00 AM. Friends may call at the funeral home on Tuesday evening from 7-9 PM and one hour prior to the service. Burial will be at the Maryland Veterans Cemetery Eastern Shore, Beulah.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601.
