

Charlotte C. Valliant

November 7, 1929 - July 12, 2022

Charlotte Callahan Valliant passed away peacefully at Bayleigh Chase on July 12, 2022. She was 92.

Born at Harrington Farm in Wye Mills on Nov. 7, 1929, she was the daughter of the late Joseph Parker, Sr, and Blanche Kinnamon Callahan. She was a 1947 graduate of Cordova High School.

In May of 1949, she wed Albert I. "T" Valliant. They resided in Easton where she dedicated her life to raising their two sons, Michael C. Valliant and David P. Valliant. Albert Valliant died in October, 1996.

Mrs. Valliant began a highly successful career in real estate in 1981, working for many local real estate firms and earning accolades as a top seller for many years. She retired in 2010.

A lifelong resident of Talbot County, she was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, the Talbot County Historical Society, the Talbot County Board of Realtors, the Talbot County Women's Club, and the Academy of Arts. As a young woman, Mrs. Valliant was in the Delmarva Chicken Festival Pageant, was a former Miss Farm Queen, and was on the cover of Human Interest Digest – Summertime.

Charlotte always believed in the adage that "laughter is the best medicine" and her sense of humor was one of her signature features. She enjoyed meeting new people, attending social functions, and sharing a good laugh with friends and relatives. She was the best grandmother to her two grandsons, always taking them for outings and showering them with love and ice cream for breakfast.

Mrs. Valliant is survived by two sons, Michael C. Valliant (Anna Marie) of Wye Mills and David P. Valliant (Mary) of Oxford; a brother, J. Parker Callahan, Jr. of Wye Mills; and a grandson, Parker T. Valliant (Gigi) of Oxford. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her grandson, Phillip D. Valliant who died in 2021, and half-brothers, Charles Robert Perkins, Sr., who died in 1997, and Edward Terry Perkins who died in 2010.

Burial will be private.

Donations in her memory can be made to Sts. Peter and Paul High School, 1212 South Washington St. Easton, MD 21601.

“ Charlotte was a great friend of mine we shared many successes in the Real Estate business together and many fun times having dinner together in Oxford over the years. I could never get her to go over the Bay Bridge - even to visit me when I moved to Hawaii. RIP Charlotte I will continue to miss your smile easy way and great fun loving spirit. Fred Paine
