“ My daughter Cathy, who was Cherie's godmother, and I have known and loved Cherie since she was born. I am her aunt and Cathy is her cousin and somehow, inadvertently I'm sure, we were left out of her obituary. My sister Carol Kinnecom and her children were very close to Cathy and me and their grandmother. When Carol moved the family to Alaska, we were broken hearted knowing that we would not be that close to them anymore. We are having a Mass said for Cherie this week and the Mass card will be sent to Carol. Our love and thoughts go out to Cherie's family and you will all be in our prayers. God bless you all.

“ I would like to express my sincere and deepest sympathy for your loss. It certainly is a sad occasion when someone in the prime of life is no longer with us. Be assured that soon this formidable 'enemy' death WILL soon be defeated (1 Cor 15:26). All of the promises of God will be fulfilled, bringing us untold happiness and joy (Rev 21:4 & Psalm 37:9-11,29). Until then may God grant you peace and comfort and guard your most precious memories of your loved one.###imported-begin##Dorrine Hall###imported-end##
