“ Cheri - so many memories of you and those two boys, now men with families of their own. I know you adored your sons and can just imagine you were the same with your daughters & grandkids. You always made sure your family was taken care of each day with meals/laundry done& the never ending cleaning of those teeny tiny town houses we lived in :-). We have not spoken in years but it was always fun to hear from old neighbors how everyone's life was going. You will always hold a special place in my heart sweet lady & are even today remembered as "Miss Cheri" to my grown sons who also have their own families. I will pray for your soul dear as there were not enough prayers said when you were here, may you be touching the face of God and resting in his arms now. Shedding a tear now...Deb Hall
