“ The first time I walked into the Capital One bank on Kent Island Cheryl was the first one to greet me. Every time after that she was right there to talk to me and ask me to open an account with them. We lost touch after that. I heard she had cancer I prayed for her every day. Cheryl you are now cancer free. Soar like a eagle and RIP. I will miss you girl.

“ I met her when my son Tommy and her son Michael began school together at Centreville. Elementry. They became best friends and Micheal was like a 3rd son. Cheryl was an incredible Mother, hard working and always thinking of Michael. She was a mainstay at little league with her son rooting him on always. She has a special place in my heart! Rest In Peace Angel you deserve it!
