

Capt. Chris Rosendale

February 19, 1956 - April 23, 2014

On April 23, 2014, Christopher J. Rosendale Jr., 58, of Centreville, MD, began a new journey after losing his battle to cancer. He was at home surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Baltimore, MD, on February 19, 1956, he was the son of Mary Lou O'Hare and the late Christopher J. Rosendale, Sr. Growing up on Kent Island, Capt. Chris attended Queen Anne's County Schools. On March 16, 1974, he married the love of his life, Lisa Stover. The couple made their home on Kent Island until 1985, when they moved to Centreville, MD.

Capt. Chris pursued his lifelong love of working on the water starting at the age of 19. Throughout the years, he would dive for oysters, net fish, and in the winter months, he would work for the Maryland DNR preparing boats for the upcoming summer season and working as a hunting guide for Twin Ponds. He was known by many as "the best captain on the Chesapeake Bay" fishing aboard his boat the Maverick. Capt. Chris was well known and respected by other watermen and loved by his loyal fishing parties who fished with him year after year. While still at the top of his career, he had an opportunity to become the private captain of the Kelly Companies yacht, the Elizabeth Ann, which afforded him more time to spend with his family and enjoying his hobbies.

Chris would raise and train beagles and could often be found walking around his farm with his dogs running rabbits. He was an AKC certified judge who judged trials up and down the East Coast. Several dogs he bred and trained were AKC Champions. He was a member of the Woodland Ferry Beagle Club and the NRA.

Chris also enjoyed teaching himself to play the banjo; taking evening rides around the farm on the golf cart, and collecting carving sets and oyster cans. He always had a "find" from an auction in Crumpton or American Corner. Amongst his greatest joy was his grandchildren with whom he loved to spend time. They lovingly referred to him as "Pop."

Chris is survived by his loving wife, Lisa Rosendale; his beloved children, Cari Leith and her husband, Cailean, of Queen Anne, Capt. Chris Rosendale III and his wife, Sarah, of Centreville, Rebecca Kellum and her husband, Willie, of Centreville; his grandchildren, Brayden and Regan Kellum, Gavin and Walker Leith, and Christopher IV and Wyatt Rosendale; his mother, Mary Lou Rosendale Pierson; and siblings, Eileen Garza, Matt Rosendale, Michael Rosendale, Daniel Rosendale. He is preceded in death by his father, Christopher Rosendale Sr., sister, Mary Theresa Rosendale, stepfather, Thomas Pierson and father- and mother in law, Robert and Vera Stover.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 am, on Tuesday, April 29, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 408 South Liberty Street, Centreville, MD 21617 where friends and family may visit from 2:00 to 4:00 pm and 6:00 to 8:00 pm on Monday, April 28. Interment will follow in Stevensville Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc., 255 Comet Dr., Centreville, MD 21617.

“Rosendale Family, I was truly sadden to hear about the loss of Chris. I remember back in the day when Lisa and Chris were dating we rode the same school bus from Kent Island to QACHS. I admired them because Chris was always attentive and kind to Lisa and she was always so polite. His demeanor was always so serious and yet soft and gentle and he had a great smile (when you could get him to smile). I know words cannot express how all of your hearts feel right now but know our prayers are with you.
