“ When Michael and I were kids, we would often have a shared birthday party.....although we were like brother and sister and loved each other dearly, we were so competitive vying for affection and always trying to one up each other lol. We had a typical "my bigwheel is faster than your bigwheel" relationship. Michael, to say I miss you would be an understatement. I will make sure the right thing is done...you will have your head stone. Love you with my whole heart.

“ Dear Mike P. We will Miss you so very much; We Pray for your family to somehow find the strenght to go on. You were the sweetest person and most helpfulest in a young man that we knew and met. When you were a friend you were a great friend. But we always thought of you as family, I will never forget the time when you came by with my brother Travis dress as Santa Clause and handed out gifts to all the children that was the kinda guy you were GREAT!!!! Love you Mike, Bailey and Poulos family.

“ I AM GLAD MIKE CAME TO STAY WITH ME, AND HELP ME SO MUCH. HE FIXED MY SHED, AND WASHER, AND WAS THE BIG BROTHER CODY ALWAYS WANTED WITH MARTIAL ART LESIONS, AND SHARING A TEAM, and telling jokes. We all loved him unconditionally exactly as he was silly- happy- funny- and so playful & even the dogs are sad. His last days with us Mike mentioned his favorite place to go was Stony Point on the Tuckahoe River, and I feel very close to him there. Mike will live on in every ones memories. We are all so sorry to see him go. love Aunt missy

“ I met Mike many years ago when I dated one of his step cousins. We would run into each other every few years and it would always be like we had just seen each other the day before! He was such a kind loving man. I was and still am shocked by his passing. I truly felt like he was family... my thoughts and prayers go out to his mom and little brother. We always talked of his brothers when we saw each other. He thought the world of them and loved them very dearly..

“ I never knew him as Mike....only Michael... My mom and Aunt Lori were best friends (truly souls sisters) and Michael and I were competitive siblings...he and I fought as much as we played...lol...we said our prayers together and hid under the covers and giggled when it was time to go to sleep. Michael was my childhood best friend...accept I'm pretty sure he hated having dual birthday parties lol...I only got to see him a few times as we got older...always thought we'd have more time... We reunited a few weeks ago and the last time we spoke was on my birthday...I'm happy that I got to tell him how much I love and miss him...nothing could prepare me for this...I will never accept not being able to see him again...or hear his voice....I can only hope that when I meet my maker I'll get to see his smile again...and hear his laugh...maybe make some jokes....I can inline hope. Until that day comes I have to deal with the pit in my stomach and remind myself that we'll meet again someday xo

“ mike was like a big brother and friend to me, im gonna miss how he picked on me and called me fatboy, im gonna miss the fun times we had, he use to pick me up and throw me into the air and catch me over and over again and how scared i was because im afraid of heights, he would cheer up anyone and everyone, he brightened up the room and everyones day, he was there for me when i cried to try to make me laugh, he stood up for me when people wronged me, he was strong and hardworking.

i cant say goodbye to him, he will always be in my thoughts and memories, to the rest of my family, be strong keep your head up, mike would want you to be happy and celebrate, he would want you to make jokes to make others happy, he would want you to remember him in your best memories of him and remember the funny stuff he did and said

“ I will always miss you Michael. You were my big brother. You were the uncle to my kids and they will always know who you were. You will live on in all of our memories because you have touched the hearts of everyone you ever met. I don't know why this happened Mike... I was making your favorite German Chocolate Cake for Thanksgiving and you were going to help me eat all of it. I'm trying to be strong and not cry because I know that you would be doing the fire engine noise right now. I love you Michael, but you know that. I will always hold dear the memories that I have of you, and I'll keep an eye on your mom for you
