“ Chris is the brother of one of my best friends Andrea who loves him so much! Its been awhile since I've seen him but what I remember most is when he came to our west islip school district to teach..He was the new cool teacher around and everyone loved him! My older brother who I thought might not know him asked me, did he teach in our school? I said yes..He said he doesnt always remember a lot of things unless it was a meaningful experience, and he remembers Chris as a truly nice guy! Chris touched a lot of lives and may not have realized it all! He was smart, friendly, airways willing to help someone in need, and truly a nice person to everyone who crossed his path!

“ Susan, young Chris and the Sommerville/Romero family,

We are heartbroken for such an untimely death of someone so good and deeply respected. Although we didn't see each other often the hug and conversations were always worth the wait!

A patriot funeral wreath of flowers should be arriving tomorrow at the church to show our love and support. Wish we could be there to morn our cousin but alas, we cannot as Ross and the kids and mom are all still quarantined. I am immunocompromised so going no where fast.

Say goodbye to Chris for us with a kiss and wishing you peace for tomorrow.

Love Elizabeth

& Ross, Baxter, Dixie'drea and Aunt Irene
