

Cindy L. Schlotzhauer

August 15, 1958 - December 8, 2017

Cindy Lou (Richards, Lyles) Scholtzhauer, 59, passed away at her home on December 8, 2017, in Centreville, MD, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Cindy was born on August 15, 1958, in Bethesda, MD. She graduated from Magruder High School in Rockville, MD, in 1976. Cindy was a licensed MD Realtor with Rita S. Pettitt Realtors of Easton, MD. She was the glue that kept everything together at her full-time job at Centreville Manufacturing (Tag-A-Long) as a secretary, human resources rep, and bookkeeper, running numbers for the past 15 years. She also helped her husband with his business, MD Signcrafters.

Cindy enjoyed going to the beach, her boat, jet skiing, crabbing, fishing, going to car shows, spending time with her grandson, Riley, and her dogs. She was actively involved with Pink Cares of the Eastern Shore.

The family wishes to thank Pink Cares and those who helped care for her during her illness.

Cindy is survived by her husband, Phillip Schlotzhauer, Jr., of Centreville; her daughter, Jennifer Lyles; son, Doug Lyles; grandsons, Riley and Jase Lyles; sister Vicky Crowe (Mark); and nieces, Sherri Dorsey, Holly Crowe, and Emily Crowe. She was predeceased by her parents, Douglas Richards and Dorothy Dixon.

In lieu of flowers, please send all donations to Pink Cares, attn: Brenda Walls,
7 W. Belle St., Ridgely, MD 21660.

A private Celebration of Life will be held at a later date, per Cindy's request.

“ Phillip, so sorry that the world has lost a lady who was not only beautiful, she had a caring soul. She was an earthly Angel for all to know. She will now be your special Angel who will keep watch over you. Everyone who met her knew that she was a special lady. May your memories help in the days ahead. Sending you hugs and love.
