Ann died peacefully on Dec 11, 2013, surrounded by family and friends at her home in Hillsboro, MD. She passed due to complications of Parkinson's disease.

Ann was born in Centreville, MD, on July 17, 1932, to Clara and Harold Kimball, she lived most of her life in Queen Anne and Caroline counties.

Ann was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She worked endlessly for the family business and also supported many youth and civic organizations. She was particularly interested in the youth groups at the YMCA and Camp Wright.

“ Norman and family.....Mary Lou and I are distressed and sorry for your loss. It's been so long since we have seen you all that we never dreamed of how Ann's illness had overcome her daily routines. She will be missed by all. Good to know she has found peace in her next life. May God Bless Ann and all who knew and loved her.

“ My family and I are very sad to hear of the passing of Mrs. Fischer. She was one of my mother's best friends and I have very fond memories of our families spending time together on the water when I was young. My heart goes out to Mr. Fischer and his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a lovely lady and will be missed dearly.
