

Clark Junior Moon Sr.

December 22, 1953 - May 8, 2026

Clark Junior Moon Sr., 72, of Crumpton, Maryland, passed away peacefully on May 8 at 1:09 p.m.

Born in Baltimore City on December 22, 1953, Clark was the son of Jasper Clark Moon and Mary Lena (Biggs) Moon. He was a devoted father, loyal friend, and hardworking man who spent much of his life as a respected union boilermaker with Boilermakers Local 193 before retiring.

Clark was known by family and friends as someone who could fix almost anything and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Whether it was repairing something for a friend, offering advice, or simply showing up when someone needed him, Clark lived a life centered around helping others.

Above all else, Clark cherished spending quality time with his family. He enjoyed shooting pool, sharing stories, and creating lasting memories with the people he loved most. His strength, generosity, humor, and steady presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Clark is survived by his sons, Keith Edward Moon, Ronald Anthony Leone, and Clark Junior Moon II, along with many extended family members and friends who loved him dearly.

His memory will continue to live on through the countless lives he touched with his kindness, skill, and unwavering support.

Funeral services will be held at Sudlersville Cemetery, rt 300 Sudlersville MD 21668, on May 14, 2026, at 2:00 PM.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Clarks passing. To share an awesome memory-Clark made the best crab soup on the east coast. He made sure that he had enough to send it home from the reunion with me. I greatly appreciated his thoughtfulness. Clark will be dearly missed at our "Moon" family reunion. Keeping his family close at heart in thought, word & prayer.
