

Clark O. Nicholson

November 3, 2005

Clark Oland Nicholson of Centreville, MD died at his home of congestive heart failure on Thursday, November 3, 2005. He was 86.

Born June 21, 1919 in Dickerson, MD, he was the youngest child of the late, Arthur Purnell and Susie V. Oland Nicholson. He spent his youth growing chickens and working on neighboring farms. Following his love of farming, he was active in FFA, becoming National Vice President and graduated from University of Maryland School of Agriculture in 1941. During WWII he served as a chemical warfare specialist in the Navy, aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Taney in the Pacific Theatre. Following his discharge in San Diego, he returned to Maryland and resumed a lifelong career with Southern States Cooperative. In 1960 he moved to Centreville, MD to become a partner in Wilson Feed and Grain Company. After that he accomplished his lifelong dream of becoming a full time farmer raising chickens, grain and produce until he retired.

Mr. Nicholson is survived by his wife of 63 years, Geraldine and his daughter, Linda. He was preceded in death by his brothers Baker and Douglas.

Services are private.

Memorial donations maybe made to Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc. 300 Del

Rhodes Ave. Queenstown, MD 21658.

Arrangements are by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.
