

Clifton Wales Fichtner

December 6, 1927 - March 3, 2019

Clifton Wales Fichtner of Easton, MD, and previously of Old Greenwich, CT, died Sunday, March 3, 2019, in Easton. He was 91.

Mr. Fichtner was born and raised in Fayetteville, AR, the son of Madeline and Charles C. Fichtner. Mr. Fichtner attended Mercersburg Academy, and subsequently enlisted in flight school in U.S. Navy. World War II ended shortly after his enlistment, thus returning him to private life where he enrolled in Harvard University and was a member of the cheerleading team.

Mr. Fichtner had a long career in a variety of operational and marketing roles culminating with position of Senior Director of Marketing at AARP. Mr. Fichtner was a long-time member of The Rocky Point Club.

He is predeceased by his wife of 53 years, Eleanor W. Fichtner of Easton, MD. He is survived by his son, Charles C. Fichtner II of Easton; daughter, Christianne C. Fichtner of Denver, CO; son, Dean W. Fichtner of New Canaan, CT; and 10 grandchildren.

A private memorial will be held at a future date in Greenwich.
