

Clinton A. Clubb

February 22, 1924 - January 11, 2021

Clinton A. Clubb of Oxford, MD, died at Bayleigh Chase on January 11, 2021. He was 96 years old.

Clint's wife, Mary, preceded him in death by five days. They celebrated 75 years of marriage this past November.

He was born in Baltimore, MD, on February 22, 1924, the son of the late James Albert Clubb and Edna Smith Clubb of Baltimore, MD. He attended Severna Park Elementary School. His family moved to Reading, PA, where he attended Wilson High School, and, upon graduation, he spent three years in the Army. Upon release from the Army, he married his high school sweetheart, Mary McLoud, on November 17, 1945. Clint then went on to receive his degree in Civil Engineering at the University of Maryland. He worked in the engineering department at the Reading Railroad and then moved on in 1955 to John H. Wickersham where he retired as President in 1989.

Clint had been active as the President and Treasurer of the Keystone Chapter of Associated Builders and Contractors, a member of the Lancaster Rotary Club, sat on the Council of St. Peters Lutheran Church, and served on the Manheim Township School Board.

During retirement, he and his wife Mary moved to Oxford, MD, where he became a member of the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity, a board member of the Oxford Community Center, and a member of the Tred Avon Yacht Club.

Clint enjoyed sailing, fishing, hunting, and travelling. His travels took him to Canada, Mexico, Scotland, South Africa, Scandinavia, England, Israel, China, and all around the United States primarily for big game hunting.

He is survived by his son, Bradford Clubb (Jill) of Manheim, PA; four grandsons, Matthew Perna (Christie) of Portland OR, Bob Perna (Danielle) of West Chester, PA, Ross Clubb (Allison) of Newmanstown, PA, and Grant Clubb of Manheim, PA. Clint is also survived by one great grandchild, Chase Clubb.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Kim Collier.

A service will be held this spring at the convenience of the family. Burial will be at the Columbarium of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Oxford, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his honor to the Oxford Community Center in Oxford, MD.

“ Dear Brad and family,
Your mom and dad were two very special people, and I feel fortunate to have enjoyed their company, especially during my college and post college years. Between the University of Delaware, Oxford Maryland, and Lancaster, I have many wonderful memories of time spent with your family. Thinking of you and your family.

“ Brad and family, Pat and I send our sincere condolences on the loss of you mother and father. I have some very good memories of working for Wickersham Const. while you dad was in charge. Pat and I remember how he allowed us to work with you on re-roofing their place at Oxford, MD one summer. Take comfort that they are still together and in a better place!

“ Brad, please accept my condolences for your recent loss of both Clint and Mary. As you know, I worked on numerous site development projects with Clint during his tenure at Wickersham Construction and later at Flyway Construction. I always admired his work ethic and welcomed his counsel and friendship. He will be missed.

“ Brad, Jill, Ross, and family,

Clint was a major figure in my life and I so appreciated him. I learned much from him, not just regarding Construction, but also how to approach life with candor and high standards.

He impacted our industry and will be missed.
