

Clyde Vernon Kelly IV

November 25, 2001

Grasonville – Clyde V. Kelly, IV died on November 25, 2001. He was 16.

Born on April 8, 1985 in Washington D.C., and raised on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He was a sophomore at St. Mary's High School in Annapolis where he was a member of the sailing team. He was a warm and outgoing young man who excelled in Lacrosse and spent much of his time wakeboarding and sailing on the tributaries of the Chesapeake. He loved the water. He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends. Let perpetual light shine upon him.

In addition to his parents, Clyde III and Kathleen Hargrove Kelly, he is survived by a brother, Robert Hargrove Kelly; grandparents Josephine Hall Kelly-Smith and Gloria and Earl Hargrove; great-godparents Helen and Donald Olson; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral Service will be held 11:00AM on Thursday, November 29, 2001 at Old Wye Parish, Wye Mills, MD. Family and friends may call at the family home, 306 Greenwood Point Road Grasonville, Maryland 21638, on Wednesday, November 28, 2001 from 2PM till 4PM and 6PM till 8PM. Interment will be at Old Wye Parish Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Friends of St.

Mary's Sailing P.O. Box 460 Centreville, Maryland 21617.
