“ I miss you little girl, but, I will see you again. I know in my heart that you are with your Nicole, Grandmothers, Pop, Uncle George, Aunt Lillian, and all your ancestors.

You know now all the answers to all the questions of why you were given to us for this so short period of time.

No words I can say now will ever explain the sadness in my heart.

God Bless and RIP

Thank you for not letting me know my sister died. I found out through a 3rd party just now. 2020. You have 1 child left, your only son. I wrote many times after I reached out to you in '19 and heard from you on my 60th birthday. I wrote many letters after and never heard? It would have been nice to have just talked to her one last time to say goodbye.

It is a shame none of these people knew Colleen had a very sweet brother. Loving, kind, compassion and thoughtful. He hadn't talk to her for years but always thought of her. Never said anything hurtful or negative. For all to know she did have a brother. Very shy, very quiet , adored animals. But this is not about him. It's about Colleen and her only brother should have been told out of human courtesy.

“ What a beautiful sole. The heavens have gained an absolute loving angel that will be most watchful from above. You will be carried on in the hearts of many. It was an honor and my pleasure to know and work with you.

May the Lord rest his hands on the family and friends to help them heal.

You will surely be missed. RIP Colleen.

“ Missy, Marisa, Kari, Maury and Family,

As I write this I am thinking of Colleen and the many times we talked and shared stories about our families and the advice we gave one another. She loved her family with all of her heart. She was a wonderful Grandmother, Mother, Daughter, Wife, and a true friend. Her wit, compassion, and capacity to say words of comfort to others in time of need was exceptional. I will cherish every moment Colleen and I shared and keep her in my heart always.

*Love,

“ Colleen, you always made me feel so very special. I love you more than words can say. It's going to take me a while to come to the realization that I cannot pick up the phone on my way to work and call you and talk to you about any and everything. You are one of the funniest people that I know. Rest in peace sweet pea.

Your friend forever, Jackie

“ I met Colleen when I was just 9 years old. Missy and I became best friends and have maintained that friendship for almost 30 years. Colleen was always like a second Mom to me growing up. She would let me tag along on family vacations. Corrected me when I was wrong. Comforted me when I was sad. She was the sweetest person unless you walked on her fresh vacuumed carpet which we tried not to do too often lol she will be sooooo missed forever. RIP Colleen, I'm glad you're no longer in pain. Love you! ❤️
