

Constance C. West

February 15, 2006

Constance Caldwell West, wife of the late Matthew Tilghman West, died on Wednesday, February 15, 2006 at Genesis Health Care-The Pines.

Born in Cheadle Hulme, Cheshire, England on June 12, 1913, she was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Ethel Robinson Caldwell. She emigrated from England with her parents and younger brother, Donald, in 1923 and settled on Long Island, New York. She attended the University of New Hampshire for two years, with the class of 1936.

She married Mr. West in Port Washington, New York on August 29, 1942. Mr. West died May 20, 1989.

At the time of her marriage, she was secretary to the president of G. Shirmer, Inc., international publisher of classical music in Manhattan.

Mrs. West had lived in Westerly RI since 1972 when her husband moved his business to Rhode Island. She was a volunteer for the Westerly Hospital for 16 years, the Westerly-Pawcatuck YMCA for 18 years, and the Olean Center for nearly 30 years. She was a parishioner of Christ Church in Westerly since 1972.

Mrs. West is survived by two sons, Matthew T. West, Jr. of North Kingstown,

RI, and Roger Edward West of Riverside, RI; and her daughter Cindy Reed and her husband Jim of Oxford, MD. In addition to her parents and husband, she was predeceased by her only sibling, Donald Caldwell, in 1973.

After cremation, she will be buried in Easton in a private graveside service.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Frank A. Olean Regional Center, 93 Airport Road, Westerly, RI 02891 or to the Westerly-Pawcatuck YMCA, 95 High St., Westerly, RI 02891.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Easton, MD.
