

Cristine Montgomery Aschman-Lieber

October 31, 1924 - January 25, 2013

Cristine Montgomery (nee Aschman) Lieber passed away overnight Thursday, January 24, 2013 at her home in Chestertown, MD. She was the loving wife of Albert Carl "Hap" Lieber of Chestertown, who predeceased her.

Cris was born October 31, 1924, in Merchantville, NJ, as the youngest of three sisters and one half-brother. Later moving to the Philadelphia area, she enlisted with the Coast Guard auxiliary, becoming an expert marksman and later an instructor. In Gladwynn, PA, she worked in an insurance office, later owning the business.

Later in life while on a vacation with friends, Cris took a boat trip up the Chester River to Chestertown, where she became enamored with the charming town, and moved there after her retirement. Here, Cris met her husband, Hap, having shared a common joy in the Chester River and animals.

A consummate dog lover, Cris adored all animals. In Pennsylvania, she rescued a baby raccoon, which she kept as a treasured pet. At the time of her death, she owned a dog and two cats, but over the last twenty years, Cris and Hap owned many Great Danes, a Doberman, a Rottweiler, a Boxer, and three Chesapeake.

She was particularly fond and proud of her home on the Chester River and always enjoyed cooking and entertaining there. Cris was especially talented at refinishing furniture and took great pleasure in doing so for her friends. She was a member of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club and was a volunteer with the Chester River Hospital.

Cris is survived by loving cousins, Richard Aschman, Christopher and Peter Aschman; and many dear friends, including Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Benjamin and their daughters Blair, Bethany & Greer.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, February 24, 2013, at 2 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newman Funeral Home in Chestertown. Burial service will be private at St. Paul's Cemetery, Chestertown.
